SIR FRANCIS ACLAND.

London --- Sir Francis Acland M.P. was married at Kensington Register Office because he did not agree with the Church's views about the re-marriage of divorced persons. He had previously announced his intention of becoming a Quaker. His bride was Miss Constance Dudley, ~~formerly his~~ formerly his Secretary

VIRGINIA AIR SHOW.

Virginia --- ~~High above the clouds~~ bomber squadrons on parade for a mass formation flight. Pictures of bombers crowd the news at this time of goodwill on earth. So much so that you wonder whether they'll leave any earth to have goodwill on.

KING AND QUEEN OF DENMARK.

London --- a welcome visitor to Britain --- King Christian of Denmark. This royal guest, of course, is married, and his queen is Queen Alexandrine. It will therefore not be necessary for the newspapers to find him a bride.

MOTOR CYCLE RECORD.

Munich --- Ernst Henne, one of the most daring of Continental motor-cyclists, tried out a new machine on the auto highways near Frankfurt. Encased in a streamlined body, he succeeded in putting up no fewer than twelve new world records.
