Big crowds came out

A meeting on Melbourne Racecourse, where ~~Fashion was some out~~ despite the rain. A field of 26 for the Caulfield Cup --- one and a half miles on a soggy track. First to show a nose in front was a famous Australian racehorse called Talking, but in the later stages of the game Talking was left behind. Watch an exciting finish as they come ^{up the straight.} ~~into the straight.~~ Stevenage is in front now with the Trump --- ~~the~~ Sir Regent nearest the camera comes up to push his white nose-band in front, ~~but~~ ^{but} ~~it~~ ~~message it~~ The Trump wins by a short head, thanks to a long neck.

BOXING.

At the Stadium Club in London, schoolboy boxers fought out the Championships of Great Britain --- and they showed enough energy to win a championship of the world. Not only ^{do} ~~did~~ they fight with energy, but you should see them breathe! ~~Now watch another fight~~ ~~pair~~ --- battling for sheer honour and glory --- no purse --- no publicity --- just a headache! ~~Wow!~~ Hold that one! After the fight the winner consoles the loser, but the loser is too dizzy to care. Well, there's nothing like practising the noble art of self-defence when you're young. You never know when it may come in handy. It teaches self-control, it's healthy, invigorating, and funny without being vulgar. Well, that's the end of ~~another~~ ~~fight~~ --- won by a technical blow-out!
