WEDDING.

Brechin --- Scottish society attended the wedding at the Cathedral --- the Earl and Countess of Airlie and their family, Lady Forres, Sir Harry and Lady Hope and the Countess of Southesk were among the guests. It was the wedding of Lady Ina Ramsay. The bride arrived with her brother, who was to give her away her bridegroom was Captain George Johnson. Captain Johnson's Regiment is the Scots Guards --- and that is why pipers were prominent in escorting the bride and groom from the Cathedral after the ceremony.

WARSPITE.

Portsmouth --- H.M.S. Warspite was to leave for the Mediterranean but she was delayed by fog. Recently reconstructed at a cost of over two millions she has already been delayed three times, from various causes. But it's not true that they're going to re-christen her H.M.S. Respite.
