

CHELSEA v EVERTON.

421

Cup Tie fever --- crowds were at Stamford Bridge to see the Everton men come out for the match against Chelsea --- and here comes the home team. Forty one thousand spectators saw the London side's hopes of Wembley go overboard --- only one goal was scored and that went north. / Here comes the movement <sup>that</sup> put Stevenson in possession --- and he scored. / Everton won one nil. The game x is ended --- but the melody lingers on.

ARSENAL v BOLTON.

64,000 at Highbury -- and they all had ~~it~~ to be fed. Then Bolton --- the visitors, wearing dark shorts, came on to the ground -- shut up --- followed by the Arsenal --- and it was the home side that won the toss. Bolton kicked off. The game went at terrific pace, ~~two fine teams fighting for mastery in the Cup Ties that mean so much.~~ <sup>and</sup> Arsenal were the first to score ~~through Bastin~~ <sup>through Bastin</sup>. ~~Bastin put in another goal.~~ Two minutes later Bastin got another. / Not long after there came another goal --- and this time it was Bolton's turn and Varruthers pushed it through. Then before the interval came another for Arsenal --- Kirchen scored to make the result Arsenal 3 -- Bolton 1 / And that was that --- H'ya Babe?