The most picturesque race-track in California --- and fifty thousand fans include some film fans. Lovely and glamorous Virginia Bruce -- Al Jolson without his Mammy; ~~race-horse owner~~ Bing Crosby, and a rival crooner. They're off --- all except one who thought he was a stand-in. Lots of famous American horses are here to race --- and with all those film stars about they're hoping to get on the pictures. They're all thoroughbreds --- Indian Broom, Star Shadow, He Did, Fair Knightess. That sounds like a misprint for Nightdress. Hope it comes off anyway.

Down the home stretch He Did went ^{ahead} ~~up~~ with a rush --- but watch the battle for place money. He Did was the winner --- Indian Broom and Fair Knightess a dead heat second.
