

DIVING.

America --- Olympic champions have brought diving to a fine art, so to make it more difficult they go in for target practice. Next time you begin to fancy ~~that~~ you're pretty good --- try this. And see how often you hit the bull's eye.

WEDDING.

London --- the wedding at St Paul's Knightsbridge of Mr Anthony Hedley and Miss Elizabeth Blundell. It was called the wedding with the ice retinue, because the attendants all wore stiff white gowns with snow and ice white trimmings. The wind also came along to ~~complete the ceremony, and~~ make a figure eight of the bride's veil. And a bridesmaid got the outside edge.
