RUGBY LEAGUE INTERNATIONAL.

it won't be fit to wrap the fish in.

Rugby League Football is different from Rugby Union different Soccer, and there's something different about the way the teams come out. This was the first international England are the team in white jerseys: bass o geed look now, because the During the game it was blowing a gale and that may have been why the spectators even when Wales scored a try. Sullivan the Welsh captain converted to put Wales five points up, Then Hudson of the English three-quarter line went over to mux score a beautiful try, fax xx but it was not converted. By now the wind was so bad that spectators had the greatest difficulty in checking up on their xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx hawxthey xminks how they ought to come out on their soccer pools. England haven't beaten Wales at this game th since 1925, but at least they And at half time the players had to wash up because people kept mistaking them for the All-Blacks. Now that they we all nice and next and clean again you were approach to what they're doing. Incidentally for those who only know the Union code, the flootwork after a tackle is interesting taxwatehx malessxyontrextooxmuffledxnpxtaxseexit. to watch, but of course on a day like this all you really care about is keeping the warm. The result of this match was another win for Wales by 7 points to/six, and by the time you've done with that
