

427

Mc.

BURIAL OF SIR THOMAS WHITE.

In sight of the Great Orme which he loved, Sir Thomas White, Liverpool's great political leader, was buried at sea. The simple coffin, covered with the Union Jack, was carried aboard the Isle of Man steamer "FENELLA" buffeted by a fierce ^{North} West-erly gale, she ploughed her way to the open sea. Whilst a large congregation attended a memorial service in Liverpool Cathedral, ~~the~~ Alderman the Rev N.D. Longbottom, in the presence of Lady White and a few intimate friends of the family, committed the body to the deep.

The body was committed to the deep in the presence of her wife & a few ^{intimate} friends of the family.