

WINTER SPORTS.

428

The last game of the winter sports week at Garmisch Partenkirchen was a battle between Germany and the Wembley Lions. The game was fast and furious, even for ice-hockey and both teams showed great skill in the control of the puck. Heavy snow fell during the match, and at intervals the unusual sight of sweepers on the job was thrown in free of charge. Germany won by 6 goals to 4.

On the bobsled run there were thrills in plenty in the international championships. The fight for first place was between Great Britain, America and Germany. America was out when her team nearly went over the top and finished in a spill. That left Britain and Germany --- and here so Britain, the winners. ~~and the British team were the winners.~~ So Captain McEvoy and his crew became world champions.
