

BURNING SLUM BUILDINGS AT KILBURN.

~~That~~ there's nothing new under the sun --- but here ~~is~~ <sup>at least</sup> is something you don't see every day. Willesden Fire Brigade going up to a couple of houses in Kilburn with bales of wood-shavings and paraffin to set the place on fire. Some people look for work!
 But it's a part of a slum clearance scheme --- and these houses had
 / ~~been~~ condemned because they were verminous. A match --- and the place goes up in a glorious blaze. So there it goes....Grand fun for the kids --- ~~and a holiday for the firemen~~ and it must be the firemen's dream of heaven --- <sup>nothing to do but</sup> ~~just to stand there and~~ watch Another ~~the other~~ place burn.
