LAUNCH OF THREE SUBMARINES.

A busy day at Barrow shipyards - these three ladies performed the ceremony at the launching of three new submarines. First --- the Triumph. Unity now goes down to the water with our cameraman in the conning tower. And now Ursula --- three new underwater craft, launched within twenty-five minutes on the same tide --- and the flood tide of Britain's naval supremacy.

FRENCH FLEET.

Our news this week also includes the story of the French fleet returning to Home Waters after exercises. At Brest and Toulon, cruiser squadrons steamed majestically into harbour --- a show of naval power by our Allies of the Great War ~~who have remained~~ our good friends through all these troublesome post-war years.
