

ARSENAL v CHELSEA.

 Arsenal are out of the Cup, but it seems that in spite of that there are quite a few people who still care what happens to them. It was nearly a record crowd again when they came out for their local derby match against Chelsea -- and here come the men from Stamford Bridge. Chelsea won the toss and Arsenal started against the wind. Free from the worries of the Cup Ties the gunners were able to produce their best form in pursuit of the League leadership -- and if you follow the white sleeves ~~lighter shirt~~ of the Highbury men you will see how they kept up the pressure. Just before half-time the ball went to Griffiths and he sent it in for one! Arsenal one up at the interval --- and in the second half a clever passing movement gave the ball to Drake --- and a two-nil win sent Arsenal top of the League.
