

CHARLTON v VILLA.

The Highbury ground sold out for the second replay of the Fifth Round ----- Villa came out first into the arena while the crowd drew lots for the goal total --- Then came Charlton. ~~X~~ From the very moment of the kick-off this was the most thrilling match of the Cup so far. Charlton peppered the ball at the Villa keeper, but Biddlestone was safe as houses. Villa are the men in white

Once again the Londoners are on the attack, and once again the Villa goal ~~Biddlestone~~ is safe. / And then --- a shot --- nerves shot to pieces as the ball hit the bar, and then from Tadman came the Charlton ~~goal~~ goal. / But bad luck came to Charlton on top of their goal. Hobbs, the left winger, sustained a broken leg and for the rest of the match the London side played a man short. From now on it was Villa's day, although still the play was one long thrill. A goal for Villa equalised one all. / Hereafter Villa were not to be denied and they went into Round Six winners by 4 goals to 1. /
