LORD AVEBURY MARRIES MISS SPARROW.

A fashionable wedding took place at Holy Trinity, Sloane Street, when Lord Avebury, son of Lady Wardington, married Miss Cecily Kathleen Sparrow. The bridegroom is an artist and a keen racing motorist, while his bride is a good horsewoman and plays a useful game of tennis. There were four bridesmaids, one of whom was the bridegroom's sister. They looked charming in Juliet caps of velvet ~~to match~~, and they carried bouquets of almond blossom.
