

The new Home and Training School for nurses at Westminster Hospital was opened by Her Majesty Queen Mary --- an auspicious beginning for the magnificent building was the gracious presence of the ever-popular Queen Mother. Our Royal Family is always busy --- ~~and~~ at Birmingham, at the British Industries Fair, His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent was making a tour of inspection. The Albert Hall was honoured by the presence of King George --- the first reigning monarch to witness an amateur boxing show in public. With His Majesty was the Duke of Gloucester --- and in the ring were the finalists of the Federation of Boys' Clubs Boxing Championships. And how they fought! ~~After the show~~ After the show His Majesty, obviously enjoying himself hugely, honoured the boys by presenting their cups and medals and shaking hands, ~~some~~ even with one who nearly fainted!

LLOYD GEORGE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr Lloyd George and Dame Margaret were presented with Gold Plate at Cardiff in ~~his~~ celebration of their Golden Wedding ----- ~~and~~ The veteran Welshman had some amusing reasons for the success of his married life.
