

TRACK MEETING.

438

Athletic enthusiasts crowded Madison Square Garden for the meeting of the National Champions. Here is the 65-metre high hurdles, won by Towns of ~~Georgia~~ after Tolmich went out on his ear. ~~Panic event of the evening was the~~ 1500 metres --- 14,000 spectators went crazy as Glen Cunningham wiped up Venska, Fedoroff and San Romani with a new indoor record of three minutes 48.4 seconds. Ganalen of Columbia went 13 feet six in the pole vault. And lastly, the 5,000 metres. Don Lash came up with a hurricane finish --- and the cameras flashed as Lash flashed by.

SKI-ING.

Out in the open --- there's a ski-jump meet on Norway's slide at Holmenkoll near Oslo. The King and the Royal Family were among the 70,000 spectators who came to watch the fun.
