

RUGBY INTERNATIONAL.

St Helen's Ground at Swansea was chosen for the Rugger International in which Ireland visited Wales. Wales are the side wearing dark jerseys with letters on the back. Right from the kick off it was a game that packed a packet of thrills. Ireland were the first to score --- here goes Morgan leading the first field by a couple of lengths to score between the posts.

Three points for Ireland --- and it was easily converted by Mr McKibben into five. That was the visitors' only score but those thrills never stopped. Time after time the lines were raided and the raiders brought crashing down. ~~That was A.R. Taylor, but he didn't score, but~~ ~~and one, plain~~

~~one, drop one drop kick.~~ ~~But now Wales are fighting hard to~~ ~~reduce~~ ~~that lead.~~ ~~After a penalty kick, watch how A.R. Taylor~~

~~goes smashing through.~~ And to make the final result Wales 11 --- Ireland 5 --- ~~there goes that man Taylor again!~~

here comes another try!
