

445

SULTAN OF MUSCAT.

B A demonstration at Aldershot ~~by the Tank Corps~~, for the benefit of the Sultan of Muscat, Britain's guest from the Persian gulf. After watching a mock battle ^{by tanks} the Sultan inspected them, ~~and~~ displaying a keen interest in these very ~~western~~ western articles of warfare. After examining one inside, the royal visitor climbed on to the turret of a light tank and went for a ride. ~~It was difficult to reconcile these modern engines with Eastern dignity, but the Sultan showed himself a democrat and a sportsman, racing over the rough ground at forty miles an hour.~~

ROOSEVELT.

Gainesville was devastated by a tornado in 1935. Now President Roosevelt has come for the ceremony of dedicating a new square in the rebuilt city. It is named Roosevelt Square, ~~in gratitude for the aid~~ ~~of Gainesville's need~~ ~~and America~~ ~~make a surprise~~ and it inspired a vigorous speech from the President.

(2)