

GOLF.

447

This was the final day of one of the biggest professional ~~golf~~ tournaments, but for once Henry Cotton finished ~~down~~ well down the list. There was a ~~fair sized~~ ^{large} gallery ~~watching~~ among the picturesque scenery of ~~the~~ High Gosforth Park --- one of the attractions being Whitcombe, who finished fourth. Here is D.J.Rees, the youngg Surbiton assistant¹/₂. With early rounds of 70, 72 and 74 Rees was making a hot pace for the leader and he finished second with an aggregate 288. Here's Perry going to putt. No, he's not --- not while cine cameras are turning. But it was Alfred Perry of Leatherhead, ~~the Open Champion of 1935~~ who won this tournament, ^{and a cheque for $500} with a 284. ~~A five hundred pound prize for the winner, and 150 for runner-up Rees.~~

BIG GAME FISHING.

Off the South coast of New South Wales --- a battle to be staged between a man and a fish. Out in the lazy swell is a school of porpoises playing, but when the bait goes over the moment is charged with drama --- there's a big fellow out there --- a swordfish. The fight is on --- for ten hours ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~powerful~~ ^{sinister} dweller of the deep is leaping and thrashing with his powerful frame --- for ten long hours the cracking sinews of the fishermen pit ~~sinews~~ ^{their strength} against the rippling muscles of the swordfish. A gallant fight --- ~~and~~ the swordfish a dangerous enemy, ~~but~~ ^{but vanquished.} ~~a gallant loser!~~
