

SCOTTISH GRAND NATIONAL.

448

Spread over the spacious Ayrshire countryside --- the course for the Scottish Grand National at Bogside. / And spacious is th word, for sometimes the horses almost got lost in the distance, Several Aintree horses ~~took part in this race~~ <sup>are here</sup> --- this year there are Southern Hero, Blue Prince and Didoric among the ten that started on the three and a half mile gallop. In the early part of the race Rightun led from Southern Hero ~~and the Professor~~, but presently Young Mischief pulled up into the lead. If he doesn't go the wrong side of those mountains he'll have a good chance. / <sup>at</sup> ~~Nearing~~ the finish Mr James V. Rank's Young Mischief was leading from the same owner's Southern Hero --- and Young Mischief won by four lengths. His price was ten to one --- so that shows you the evils of betting. /

HAT FASHIONS.

Wide brims --- narrow brims --- no brims at all --- they are yours to choose from in the season's fashions in hats. Styles are going to be more complicated --- and that's good news for the milliner if not for anyone else. But whatever hat you choose, be sure you wear the smile that goes underneath it. / Veils are getting longer --- if you want to be in the swim, you must look as if you'd got caught in a fishing net. /
