

GRAND PRIX DE PAU.

Road racing on the Continent starts in earnest with the Grand Prix de Pau --- and the crack drivers of fourteen nations hurled their cars around the twisting circuit for a hundred laps. Carracciola, Lang and the French ace Dreyfus gave a thrilling display of skill in a three-cornered duel for the lead --- others less quick on the turn provided the narrow escapes ~~and~~ ~~thrills~~ The race was a triumph for France --- Dreyfus was the winner at the end of a speed-battle lasting three hours.
