

DALADIER GOVERNMENT

448

The French Government under M. Blum has fallen, giving place to a new Cabinet led by M. Daladier. Daladier has been called the strong man of France, and with M. Chautemps as vice-Premier and four other Cabinet Ministers, he will form an inner council. By this means it is hoped that the series of political crises in France will be checked. Daladier wants ~~in~~ ninety-three millions for defence --- and he was faced with trouble in armament factories. In the aircraft industry agreement had been reached on the basis of longer working hours and higher wages. In other metal and armament factories the Government Defence plans were threatened by stay-in-strikes. Chautemps had previously ended a similar strike with threat of emergency decree; Strong mand Daladier also guaranteed that the work would be resumed, and strikers began to return to work. So ~~this~~ ~~xxxx~~ re-armament ~~is~~ vital to ~~xxxxxx~~ French security, will shortly be working ~~at~~ full speed ahead once more.
