

^ x Lined up and ready for action on Salisbury Plain --- the Larkhill School of Gunnery. Eighteen pounders and howitzers ~~in~~ ~~action~~ teach the young gunner how to be a pain in the neck to a target miles away. The Army's at work.

After that --- the Royal Corps of Signals gave a rehearsal display at Catterick Camp in ~~Yorkshire~~. They will do this sort of thing at the Royal Tournament and at the Empire Exhibition in Glasgow. The Army's at play!

It's crazy riding --- but it's safe when you know how to do it. And when you get safely through a test like this, a war would seem like a rest cure.
