

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

450

Here is a foretaste of Derby Day --- big crowds and ~~the~~ fair weather for the Epsom Races. The important race of the meeting is the City and Suburban --- a mile and a quarter handicap. There are eighteen starters --- ~~Full Sail and Flag of Truce are leading the parade.~~ But before the start there's a comic interlude by FEDOR! Is this Epsom or Hampstead Heath? Rkde 'im cowboy!

But now for the serious business of the day --- eighteen starters ready to go and --- they're off!

Full Sail, Intolerance, Terror and Pigskin all well away. And here they come round the Buses --- Terror now is in the lead, with Pigskin, Intolerance and Lady of Shalott lying close. Watch the cavalcade as they come thundering up into ~~the~~ the camera's eye.

Tattenham Corner --- Terror now is pacing it out as if pursued by devils, but it's Pigskin making a race of it a length away. Into the straight for the run home it's a neck and neck battle between Pigskin and Terror. Inch by inch they fight it out --- then Cliff Richards on Pigskin nearest the camera pulls away. Pigskin wins by a head --- Terror second and Lady of Shalott third.
