

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER

The Majestic pile of Worcester Cathedral was centre of a ceremony attended by the Duke of Gloucester --- laying up the old Colours of the Scots Guards. The Colours on parade to-day were carried at Waterloo and in the Peninsular War. ~~His Royal Highness~~ His Royal Highness ~~first inspected the Guard of Honour.~~ ~~He~~ was preceded into the Cathedral by the swordbearer of the town of Worcester ~~During the service, the Duke~~ ~~His Royal Highness~~ handed over the Colours to the Dean --- sanctity for those emblems of heroism and loyalty in the wars of bygone years.