MIKADO PREMIERE.

A landmark in cinema history was reached with the West End production of the Mikado,- it is the first of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas to reach the screen. It's brilliant world premiere was at the Leicester Square Theatre. / A distinguished distinguished audience assembled in the crowded foyer, including Prince and Princess Andrew of Russia, Princess Xenia of Russia, and many well known representatives of the social, diplomatic and artistic worlds. Amongst the many celebrities were Mr A.J. Rank, / Lady Somers, / Mr Edward Everett Horton, / and Mr C.M. Woolf. / The guests of the evening were the Duke and Duchess of Kent and they received a great welcome. The proceeds from this successful first night were given to the Boy Scouts Fund. /
