NEW LIFEBOAT LAUNCHED AT NEW BRIGHTON.

1 Mrs Mary Robinson, a Liverpool widow of nearly 90 years of age, personally performed the launching ceremony at Princes Dock, of a handsome motor lifeboat she has presented to New Brighton. The retired coxswain Mr R. Jones, received a silver medal for bravery at sea, ~~with the old boat~~. The present coxswain, Mr J.R. Nicholson, assembled his crew for a trip in the new boat. Made possible by the generosity of this public-spirited old lady, this fine vessel cost £6000, and can take aboard 50 people. ~~She has the latest line-throwing apparatus, and is specially designed to meet heavy seas.~~ She should considerably enhance New Brighton's already splendid record- lifeboats from this station have saved 678 lives in 78 years.
