CANADIANS PARADE IN STRENGTH.

Almost like a peace-time parade --- the bands massed for march and counter-march

This was the parade of the Third Canadian Division for inspection by the King and Queen. This Division arrived in the British Isles & few weeks ago to join the many thousands already here. The King's inspection altogether lasted seven hours; taking in three infantry brigedes as well as other units which make up a division in 1941. We bein may form to show you all the fer and form to show you all that
