

RABBITS ON SHOW IN GLASGOW.

They're such <sup>pets</sup> soft gentle ~~creatures~~; and they love to be stroked and made a fuss of. ~~xxxxxxx~~ At this Scottish show, there is a wide assortment of valuable animals on parade-- ~~including some English bred and the Chinichilla variety.~~

These ~~h~~ibbling little creatures have to be constantly looked after, and kept scrupulously clean.

They are judged for type, for their general condition, and for the value of their pelts.

Here they had a record entry, while the quality of the skins was exceptional.

And at the end of the proceedings, there was the presentation of prizes to those who <sup>were the winners.</sup> ~~came out lucky.~~ ~~Isn't they lucky to~~ ~~have such undivided attention?~~
