Bible Exhibition--

London- where in the Chapter House of Westminster Abbey, Lord Brabazon of Tara opened one of the most valuable private collections of ancient manuscripts and historic Bibles in the English-speaking world. ^{Among the} ~~The~~ long history of religious books ^{was} ~~ranged from~~ a Prayer Book, used by Queen Victoria- ~~interesting relic of the Golden Age~~ ^{and} a replica of ~~the~~ Modern Bible- presented to our ~~young~~ Queen- at her Coronation. ^{million} 23,000,000 copies ^{OF THE BIBLE} ~~of the Bible~~ (often in miniature) are sold every year- ^{AND HERE ARE SOME EXAMPLES} ~~while a thimble embraces this minute copy of the New Testament.~~ ~~And a desert speck holds six of the smallest editions of the Bible ever published~~

Tornado--

America- where the dreaded spring tornadoes- (or "twisters" as they're called)- hurtled across the New England ~~country~~ countryside, leaving a death roll running into three figures, and damage amounting to millions of dollars. Thousands were made homeless by the storms, ^{which} ~~as they~~ completely levelled even ^{sturdy} ~~well~~-built houses. Many ^{more} ~~of them~~ were torn apart like boxes- and ~~whirled~~ whirled miles away- in the worst visitation for 75 years.
