Colourful South American visitors to Cowdray Park, Sussex, ~~are~~ <sup>were</sup> these ~~representatives of~~ <sup>representatives of</sup> the polo ponies to be used by Argentina, in the Final of the Coronation Cup Tournament. / And gracing one of the biggest crowds ever to watch polo in Britain - were the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh, who himself was playing during the afternoon.

The Coronation Cup Final was decided over six chukkers, or periods, of 7½ minutes / ~~and~~ <sup>CHUKKER,</sup> By the end of the fourth Argentina had galloped to a five-one lead. ~~Here's~~ <sup>Here's</sup> one of their goals coming now /.

England fought back strongly; but Argentina received the Cup from the Queen, winning by seven goals to six. /

Later, the Duke of Edinburgh (No. 4) rode out as a member of Cowdray Park to play Whiphill in the Novices Cup Final /

During the match there were frequent heavy showers, but the Queen disregarded them, as, (sheltered by an umbrella), she watched her husband in action, on the polo field, for the first time this season. /

Lord Cowdray ~~(who has lost an arm)~~ <sup>himself</sup> was in fine form, scoring three goals; and with his team, received tankards from the Queen, to ~~commemorate an~~ <sup>celebrate</sup> ~~outstanding victory,~~ /
