

The crowds gather in Cardiff's Maindy Stadium for an attractive day's ~~sportsmen and their competitors preparing~~ sport. Well - see what we mean - they're competitors preparing for the 36th Annual Welsh A.A.A. Championships. ^{5 11-1} / S Dawn

The 100 Yards Final, and Ken Jones - (that great Welsh sportsman) ^{4-6 feet} ~~is defending~~ his title against stern opposition. ^{And} But another of those spectacular runs - brings him yet another Welsh title - and the cheers of the fans.

His time - 10.2 seconds. B. Ball of Roath was second. /

Another fine ^{RACE} ~~record~~ in the Women's Sprint event. But J. Pearce of Whitland Grammar School holds on to a narrow lead - to gain the verdict. /

Three competitors for the Women's Discus Event. ^(Kevin) ~~He~~ D. L. Watts ^{of} ~~Haverfordwest Youth Club...~~

The winner ~~is~~ D. Noort of Aberystwyth University College - whose ^{THROW} ~~time~~ beat that of a fellow-student. M. Davies... /

^{off in} All ~~appear~~ the 880 yards final - and there they go - nine starters who had qualified from the two heats. /

An excited crowd appreciate the battle for supremacy ^{as they tear} ~~along~~ ^{into} the final straight,

And - here comes the winner. D.G.P. Richards of Roath Harriers. His time 1 minute 58 seconds. /

The Women's 80 Metres hurdles. G. Pinnellof St. Julien's High School forges to the front and looks a ready winner. But tragically, she crashed ^{with} the final hurdle - leaving K. Bowater of Bangor University, a narrow ^{disc} ~~winner~~.

Plaudits ~~of victory~~ for the winner, and medical attention for the day's unluckiest loser. X

The Pole Vault finds H. C. Williams of ~~Aberystwyth University College~~ ^{ROATH HARRIERS} defending his title. But ~~No. 85~~ K. Goodall of Birchfield Harriers sets up a new Welsh Native record by clearing 11 feet 9 inches... X

A good-class field for the Two Miles Steeplechase - with the water jump proving a formidable hazard. Watch the many different ways of taking it. Follow-my-leader - so he doesn't see the hurdle. Whoops...

A moment of indecision - then - well - that's the easier way out - saves you jumping. /

Another record falls in this race, as ~~the~~ Morgan ~~is~~ ^{P. R. L. No 104} ~~is~~ ^{full of running -} ~~yet~~ another runner to finish in 10 mins. 38 seconds ~~and jumping, too...~~ ^{OVER}

Athletics

2032

JDA
place in the record-books for an outstanding winner.

So to the Men's 220 Yards Final. And Ken Jones No. 126 not only successfully defends his title - but scores yet another Sprint Double... in 22.7 seconds.

Another sporting triumph for a grand Welsh all-rounder...

26