Irish Derby

Southern Ireland - where it's Derby Day on the Curragh with a field of thirteen for the great Classic.

And a desperate finish, too, as English hope Premonition (on the outside) beats Chamier, the Irish Favourite, by a head.

As we now know, Premonition lost the race on an objection, lodged by Billy Rickaby on Chamier - so let's repeat that last thrill-packed furlong in slow motion. REMEMBER - PREMONITION ^(No 10) IS ON THE OUTSIDE BATTLING OUT THE FINISH WITH CHAMIER ON THE RAILS - Can you spot the interference? Note how closely locked together the two horses were - a factor which contributed to the first-ever Irish Derby objection.

~~Chamier is owned by Mrs F.L. Vickerman - and another training success for Vincent O'Brien.~~

Petrol Dump fire in Korea

Korea - where the war enters its fourth year with setbacks for the United Nations. Anti-red prisoners released by their South Korean guards and ^(A large crowd) a Red bombing raid, on a petrol supply-dump at Inchon.

One million gallons of blazing fuel sends a sheet of flame hundreds of feet into the air - ^{illuminating} ~~illuminating~~ a ^{dark} ~~dark~~ dawn in Korea.
