Final Days at Henley and Wimbledon 98 20359 4th July 53

To the cool charm of a lovely riverside setting, add the splendour of Ascot and the gay atmosphere of Boat Race Saturday and the result is -Henley - home of the Royal Regatta. The Mecca of carsmen - both young and old - the lovely setting for beauty in her summer cars. There's rowing, too, with crack foreign crews competing. But to-day resounding victories for Britain. The R.A.F. are winning the Themes Challenge Cup from Imperial College - their first Henley trophy. And Tony Fox regains the Diamond Sculls - for himself and for Britain beating R. George of Belgium by four lengths. His time-8 minutes twelve seconds. A worthy champion Wimbledon, too, is crowded for Champion's Day. Vic Seixas of America Singles (at the far end) and Neilson and Denmark battling for the Singles Seixas serving - he won the first set 9-7.

Neilson is the first unseeded player to reach the Final since 1930. But Seixas is coasting to victory

Match Point. Seixas serving - to win game, set and match. 9-7, 6-3, 6-4 The Duchess of Kent presents the trophy to Vic Seixas - his first major Tournement success

And a medal for Kurt Neilson - a gallant runner-up

All-American battle in the Women's Singles between holder Maureen Connolly and Doris Hart - the 1951 chempion

wiss Connolly serving - and she wins the rally

Miss Connolly again. She won the first set 8-6 ...

After trailing behind, Miss Hart squares the second set at four gemes all "Little Mon in action Score fire genes of .

Match Point. Miss Hart love-fourty down.

And victory for "Little Mo" - 8-6, 7-5... Her second Wimbledon min

Holder of the four major titles - the Queen of the Courts