

Far from his native Nepal - Tensing, the Everest Climber, and his wife make a sightseeing tour of London - which they are <sup>visiting</sup> ~~seeing~~ for the first time.

And what better place to start than Buckingham Palace - the home of the Queen who was so graciously pleased to approve the award of the George Medal to Tensing - one of the gallant conquerors of Everest.?

Tensing - (who reached the summit with Edmund Hillary, the New Zealander) surveys Nelson's Column, in Trafalgar Square. Though not, we hope, with a view to climbing it.

So welcome to London, "Tiger" Tensing! You'll find it a <sup>lovely</sup> ~~pleasant~~ place after the "roof of the world".
