GB 2038-

The Icrld of Sport

old Trafford - dismal and deserted. A deluge late on the second day floods the ground. But next morning, a proud bannet tells that a brave Australian stand is still defying England and the weather. Until Hole is caught by Evans, off Bedser A stand of 173 with Harvey had retrieved a disastrous start. But Harvey is next togo, amid a great reception for a gallant century. Australia 256 for five.

The wickets tumble. Though de Courcy sends up the "three-hundred" The pitch is now helping the biaxars bowlers and the end comes when Langley goes at 318. Seven wickets had fallen for ninety-seven runs. But with 318 on the board, Australia are sitting pretty, if the rain-damaged wicket turns spiteful.

England openers - Skipper Len Hutton and newly-promoted Bill Edrich. Osterningdyheitingykyr Mattersyn war in inder and de start and the second start in the second start in the second start in the second start in the second start is the second start in the second start is the second sta

A fine stand by Hutton and Compton - and England total 276 - only fortytwo behind the Aussies. Then came the shocks. Australia losing wight wickets for 35 runs on a turning wicket - before the match was left -

drawn

Excitement at Carnoustie, too, as the leaders mt set out on the fourth and Final round in the Open Golf Championship. U.S. Amateur Frank Stranahan drives off

Dei Rees in play (fighting gallantly for Britain), a single stroke behind the morning leaders, Ben Hogan and Vincenzo of Argentina S In the same menacing position is Bric Thompson of Australia, the runnerup last year.

Almost the last to set out is Ben Hogen (four times American chempion) knowing that he needs a final round of 71 or better - to win the crown (AND CERPA/NEEDS A 70 TO WIN Frank Stranahan (holing out in one on the 18th green) had finished with a four-round total of 286, his a setting up a new course record Soon after, both Rees and Thompson joined him with 286 - and three were leading the field.

But playing like a man inspired - "Iceberg" Ben Hogan burned up the same