The World of Sport

the ground. But next morning, a proud bannet tells that a brave Australian stand is still defying England and the weather. Until Hole is caught by Evans, off Bedser A stand of 173 with Harvey had retrieved a disastrous start. But Harvey is next togo, emid a great reception for a gallant century. Australia 256 for five.

The wickets tumble. Though de Courcy sends up the "three-hundred"

The pitch is now helping the binners bowlers and the end comes when Langley goes at 318. Seven wickets had fallen for ninety-seven runs. But with 318 on the board, Australia are sitting pretty, if the rain-damaged wicket turns spiteful.

35xendexxx

A fine stand by Hutton and Compton - and England total 276 - only fortytwo behind the Aussies. Then came the shocks. Australia losing wight wickets for 35 runs on a turning wicket - before the match was left drawn Excitement at Carnoustie, too, as the leaders at set out on the fourth and Final round in the Open Golf Championship. U.S. Amateur Frank Stranahan drives off.

Dei Rees in play (fighting gallantly for Britain), a single stroke behind the morning leaders, Ben Hogen and Vincenzo of Argentina ...

In the same menacing position is Fric Thompson of Australia, the runner-up last year.

Almost the last to set out is Ben Hogen (four times American champion) knowing that he needs a final round of 71 or better - to win the crown
AND CERPA NEEDS A 70 TO WING
Frank Stranahan (holing out in one on the 18th green) had finished with a four-round total of 286, his a setting up a new course record Soon after, both Rees and Thompson joined him with 286 - and three were leading the field.

But playing like a men inspired - "Iceberg" Ben Hogen burned up the sawre course - though he took two putts on the 18th

His finel round of 68 shatters the course record - and wins him the title by four strokes. And the trophy presented by Lord Provest McLaughlan to Ben Hogan - Champion of Carnoustie and the World.

Records tumbled, too, at the White City, as athletes battled for the National titles in the A.A.A. Championships.

In the Mile came the long-awaited clash between Bill Nankeville, the holder, and Roger Bannister. But the selection of the long awaited clash between Bill Nankeville, the Watch as he finishes alone - in four minutes five-point-four seconds the third fastest mile ever run in Britain and a new championship record All eyes on Gordon Piric (No. 37) in the Three Miles. The previous evening he had set up a new world-record for Six Miles with the incredible time of 28 minutes 19.4 seconds.

Now - (despite that gruelling race) he leads the field

But enother great British runner Tannister, comes home alone - as with by fifteen yards in 13 minutes 43.4 seconds, shattering the great wooderson's time set up seven years ago

No. A green duel in the 440 Yards hurdles

But the holder, Herry Whittle wins by two yards - setting up a new

English Native record with a time of 52.7 seconds

Well Done, Harry Whittle - Hurdles Chempion for the seventh successive season!