

His final round of 68 shatters the course record - and wins him the title by four strokes. And the trophy, presented by Lord Provost McLaughlan to Ben Hogan - Champion of Carnoustie and the World.

Records tumbled, too, at the White City, as athletes battled for National titles in the A.A.A. Championships.

In the Mile, came the long-awaited clash between Bill Nankeville, the holder, and Roger Bannister. ~~But though Nankeville was pressing Bannister~~
~~the mile was won by Bannister in the 2nd lap.~~

Watch ^{BANNISTER} as he finishes alone - in four minutes five-point-four seconds - the third fastest mile ever run in Britain and a new championship record!

All eyes on Gordon Pirie (No. 37) in the Three Miles. The previous evening he had set up a new world-record for Six Miles, with the incredible time of 28 minutes 19.4 seconds.

Now - (despite that gruelling race) he leads the field

~~But another great British runner, Bannister, comes home alone, - ^{to win}~~
by fifteen yards, in 13 minutes 43.4 seconds, shattering the great Wooderson's time, set up seven years ago!

Now A ^{stem} duel in the 440 Yards hurdles!

But the holder, Harry Whittle ^(No. 1) wins by two yards - setting up a new English Native record with a time of 52.7 seconds!

Well Done, Harry Whittle - Hurdles Champion for the seventh successive season!
