Homecoming of the Queen Mother--

July 17th. '53.

The Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh ~~ARE~~ ^{ARE} at London Airport-- to greet Royal ~~tourists~~ ^{travellers} after a job well done.

~~The Comet Airliner-~~ ^{BRINGS} home Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret, after their 16 day visit to Southern Rhodesia

The Queen went aboard the plane- for an affectionate reunion with her mother and sister.

And together- a happy family disembarkation, amid welcoming cheers ~~for the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret.~~

~~Besides flying 11,000 miles, the royal tourists have spent many hours travelling by train and car, after a tour that has left so many happy memories with the peoples of Central Africa.~~

THE ROYAL TOURISTS HAVE FLOWN 11,000 MILES, AND THE Queen Mother graciously thanked the crew of the Comet, for their safe journey. ~~and we can~~

~~and may we add -~~
~~The thank you of the country go out to the two royal~~

~~ambassadors.~~ "WELCOME HOME" TO TWO ROYAL AMBASSADORS.
