

Roving Camera--

July 21st. '53.

West helps East-

Germany-- where West Berliners set up stalls- Laden with fresh milk and fruit-(at cheaper prices) - for the benefit of those in the Soviet-controlled Eastern Sector, where food is scarce.

A GESTURE OF GOODWILL ON THE EAST-WEST BORDER ZONE OF BERLIN

While, Far-away on the Czech border (almost under the noses of the Police) more than twelve million pamphlets were put into balloons, ~~XXXXXX~~ and sent out to the heart of Czecho-slovakia.

A message of hope from the free-world to the less fortunate peoples of Eastern Europe

Barrage in Korea-

Korea-- where Marine Corps batteries pound Red positions, in an all-out effort to stem the heaviest enemy offensive in two years of war.

UNITED NATIONS
The ~~costs~~ are paying a bitter price in holding the massive assaults of a desperate enemy.

And, At an army review in Seoul,<sup>fac</sup> South Korean President- ~~XXXXXX~~ Syngman Rhee- promises co-operation with the Allies in bringing about a cease-fire.

SEARCHING FOR PEACE IN KOREA

~~Meanwhile, assistant Secretary of State- Walter Robertson (who has just returned from Korea)- is greeted by Secretary Dulles, as he returns to Washington to report to President Eisenhower.~~

INCREASE, BRITAIN'S LORO SALISBURY MEETS, IN WASHINGTON, THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF FRANCE AND <sup>THE</sup> U.S.A.

P.T.O.