

Roving Camera--

Aug 25th. '53.

Personalities in the News-

London airport-- and arriving in Britain is film-star Elizabeth Taylor- with her blue-eyed seven months-old son- Michael- and his Dad- who, as you know- is Michael Wilding. They've come to spend a holiday at home- and to have the baby christened.

~~Meanwhile, Michael Junior has yet to learn the Hollywood technique of facing the cameras.~~

Shah of Persia-

Rome-- where the Shah of Persia prepares to ~~xxxx~~ leave for the flight back to his capital- Teheran.

The young ~~xxxx~~ Ruler takes leave of those who befriended him in his anxious hours of exile, and goes back <sup>HOPING</sup> to bring his country out of its economic crisis.

Len Hutton--

Pudsey in Yorkshire- says "Well Done" to a local boy- Len Hutton- who has led England to victory in the Test Series, and so regained the Ashes. It's a great day for Len- who, after listening to all the compliments ~~from~~ from his supporters, <sup>HAS THIS TO SAY TO THE</sup> says - (Sound to end)-
<sup>MANY FRIENDS OF HIS YORKSHIRE HOME-TOWN</sup>

U.N. Debate Korea-

New York- where the United Nations' Assembly discuss the forthcoming Far Eastern Conference, called for by the Korean Truce.

Mr Vishinsky's attempt to delay proceedings- ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ <sup>AND AMERICA</sup> is vetoed, as Britain ~~xxxxxxxx~~ calls for immediate action in setting up the Korean ~~xxxx~~ political conference. ②

Meanwhile, Korea celebrates Independence Day, marking the fifth anniversary of the country's foundation.

Units of the Army pass in review before President <sup>Syngman</sup> ~~Syngman~~ Rhee - who proclaims that his goal is still the unification of all Korea.

~~While the country's future is decided over the United Nations Conference Table, the young Korean Republic displays its strength.~~