

2052-

Russian Wife flies to Britain--

Sept 1st. '53.

Wonderful moment at Northolt airport for Mrs Florence Hall ^{AND FAMILY} who (with toy in hand) is waiting on the tarmac to greet a long-lost daughter-in-law and her ~~son~~ GRANDSON.

Mrs Clara Hall is the first Russian wife to arrive in Britain, freed after nearly seven years' separation from her English husband- (an Foreign Office official), whom she married in Moscow.

Now Mother and son are seeing England ~~xxx~~ for the first time- though her husband tried repeatedly to get Russian permission for his family to return.

~~It is reported that Mrs Hall is more interested in the political side than in the more personal side of the story.~~

Soon it'll be journey's end in Ottawa, where Mr Hall now ^{WORKS} ~~is a~~ AND HE WILL be seeing his small son for the first time.
