

Small Submarine-

Norfolk, Virginia-- where a French pocket submarine takes to the water for defence manoeuvres with the U.S. Navy.

Manned by a crew of two, and carrying torpedoes and mines, she can dive under steel nets- nosing her way noiselessly in shallow waters, to deliver a deadly blow on unsuspecting targets.

This is the proto-type of "Midget Subs" which America is ~~developing~~ developing- but let's hope they may never be used

Wedding-

London- and at St James's Church, Spanish Place, Miss Barbara Cullen- former receptionist at Kensington Air Station- was married to Lieut Philippe D'Aboville, ~~lately~~ ^{lately} returned from French Indo-China, where he gained the Croix de Guerre.

An auspicious occasion, embracing Anglo-French partners in a further strengthening of L'Entente Cordiale

Eskimos Vote-

Canada-- where, during the recent Elections, a helicopter loaded ballot boxes from a supply ship- for distribution ~~xxx~~ amongst the Eskimos of her Arctic hinterland.

Leaving the ship- the 'copter flew past icebergs, searching for a suitable rock to serve as a landing-field.

The Eskimos, though fairly accustomed to planes flying overhead, were amazed as this flying monster slowly came to ground.

After distributing the ballot boxes, the "maid-of-all-work" ~~went~~

LEFT ~~for~~ - for other remote destinations in Canada's wild Northland.
