

British Film wins award at Edinburgh--

Sept 1st. '53.

Festival Edinburgh is the scene of this year's presentations of the Selznick film awards, and the ceremony is attended by the Lord Provost - Sir James Millar. (2)

An ~~AMERICAN~~ American jury's choice for the Selznick Golden Laurel award is read out by the Earl of Selkirk -Sound-

And Charles Frennd- the director of this British production- receives the trophy, awarded to the ~~picture~~ ^{film} that has made the greatest contribution to mutual understanding and goodwill between the World's Free Peoples -Sound to end (2)