

While visiting Malaya- en route for Australia- Mr Duncan Sandys-
-Minister of Supply- inspected ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ a typical Jungle Patrol of the Somerset Regiment.

Here he saw pictures, recalling their proud capture- ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ of Lau Cheng- Communist Commander of South Selangor.

Later, Mr Sandys went up into the hills, to watch ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ JUNGLE
parachute ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ JUMPING by members of the Special Air Service Regiment

Southwards- to Malacca, where the new Chief of the ancient Nanigg Tribe , accompanied by his retinue- climbed the traditional hill to pray- before his installation.

With incense-laden supplication, the Dato- as he is called-sought guidance from his ancestors.

Then ~~xxxx~~ - a salutation- from a salvo of ~~XXXX~~ guns

Leaving the hill, the Dato made his way to the historic well, where he was to ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ take his ceremonial bath (2)

And tribal leaders paid homage to their newly-appointed ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ head- 18th in a succession dating back to the 17th century
