Sept 29th. '53.

VC's, DCM's Parade-

London -- where over 400 holders of the V.C. and D.C.M., paraded for the Conduct annual Rally of the Distinguished/Medal League on Horse Guards Parad The medalists, many of whom were war pensioners, were inspected by Brigadier J.G. Smyth V.C. - and The youngest recipient of the D.C.M. was Fusilier Hodgkinson, just back from Korea. After the inspection, the men marched to the Cenetaph to pay a comrade's tribute to the management fallen of two world wars.

Harvest Festival --

London again -- where choristers led a procession of pearlies, attending a Harvest Festival Service at the Church of St Mary Magdalene - just off the Old Kent Read.

The kids, too, accompanied their parents, bringing gifts of bread, fruit and eggs trains to the coster's own Cathedral.

well-known hymns of thanksgiving. And listened to a reading of the Scriptures by II year-old Lindy matthews Matthews of Hampstead.

A sparkling day for the warm-hearted Costera folk who do so much in the cause of charity.

MIG Pilot-

Seoul -- where a large monetary reward awaited a North Korean pilot-Captain Noh Keum Suk- who had flown a Russian MIG jet fagnter into Allied lines in Korea.

The offer of the reward was made in the spring by General Mark Clark- then U.N. Commander in the Far East.

Not only is the pilot to be given coplum, but he has also been and agreented the original remark of over $35.000.

Labour Conference-

Margate -- where members of the Labour Party met for their annual annual conference, which held at the Winter Garden.

An Early arrival was Mr Attlee, looking bronzed after his holiday in Jugoslavia, as he chatted with Sam Watson- the miner's representative from Durham.

And Nyé Bevan too- with his wife Jennie Lee- Max He was later to head the poll for the National Executive.