Sept 29th. '53.

VC's, DCM's Parade-

London-- where over 400 holders of the V.C. and D.C.M., paraded for the annual Rally of the Distinguished/^{Conduct} Medal League on Horse Guards Parade. The medalists, many of whom were war pensioners, were inspected by Brigadier J.G. Smyth V.C. and ^{and} The youngest recipient of the D.C.M. was Fusilier Hodgkinson, just back from Korea. (3)

After the inspection, the men marched to the Cenotaph to pay a comrade's tribute to the ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ fallen of two world wars. /

Harvest Festival--

London again-- where choristers led a procession of pearlies, attending a Harvest Festival Service at the Church of St Mary Magdalene- just off the Old Kent Road.

The kids, too, accompanied their parents, bringing gifts of bread, fruit and eggs ~~xxxxx~~ to the coster's own Cathedral. /

~~xx~~ All dressed up in their traditional finery, they joined in the well-known hymns of thanksgiving. And listened to a reading of the Scriptures by 11 year-old Lindy ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ Matthews of Hampstead.

A sparkling day for the warm-hearted Costers folk who do so much in the cause of charity. /

MIG Pilot-

Seoul-- where a large monetary reward awaited a North Korean pilot-- Captain Noh Keum Suk- who had flown a Russian MIG jet fighter into Allied lines in Korea.

The offer of the reward was made in the spring by General Mark Clark- then U.N. Commander in the Far East. /

~~Not only is the pilot to be given a plum, but he has also been ~~xx~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ the original reward of over $50,000.~~

Labour Conference-

Margate-- where members of the Labour Party met for their ~~xxxxx~~ annual conference, ~~which was~~ held at the Winter Garden.

An Early arrival was Mr Attlee, looking bronzed after his holiday ~~xx~~ in Yugoslavia, as he chatted ~~xx~~ with Sam Watson- the miner's representative from Durham. (3)

And Nye Bevan too- with his wife Jennie Lee- ~~xxx~~ He was later to head the poll for the National Executive.
