Folk Dancing-

London-- where dancers and musicians from twenty-five countries rehearse ~~in warm, autumn evenings~~ for the forthcoming International Dance Festival at the Albert Hall.

~~From the splendour of distant Rio, come~~ Brazilian artists, bring their own care-free and colourful Latin-American rhythms. While members of the Spanish Dancing Institute at Marylebone rival Southern elegance in a show, whose profits will be given to the United Nations' Students Association.

Gen Mark Clark--

Seoul-- where a Guard of Honour of troops from 17 Nations, who fought in Korea, parade before their retiring Commander-- General Mark Clark. And the former Chief in the Far East, arriving home with his wife in California, gets a real soldier's welcome from his daughter.

Flame Throwers--

America-- where, at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, the famous 82nd Airborne Division undergo training in the dangerous art of flame-throwing. And practice by night gives these airborne fighters a new angle of attack- in hazardous operations behind the enemy lines. Scorched ~~xxxxxxx~~ earth tactics with a vengeance!
