

Sports fashions for every season - from chilly-fingered days of winter to sun-scoured summer hours.- These were on show to fashion experts at Puerto Rico's exclusive Cabana Club.

For fishing days on rocky beaches, these eye-opening outfits in sailcloth and chambray are called "Clam-diggers!" ~~They'll open the meanest cheque-~~

Fashions on the rocks, (or perhaps, painful memories), christened these denim pants "Calf-skinners?" They're worn with a flame-red broadcloth shirt <sup>which has</sup> a tie-front.

The curtain rises, too, on the 1954 beach-wear. On the sands, anyway, that "hem-line" will reach a higher level of understanding. And though into every summer a little rain may fall - you can still look glamorous in the "umbrella hat?"

And even if winter days mean drab housework - well, <sup>THERE ARE FREQUENT</sup> colourful surprises ~~are often hidden in that better drab.~~
