3-Power Talks-

London-- where Mr Eden- now happily recovered from his recent illness- (2)

~~Foreign Minister and Secretary of State, M. Bidault- French~~ Foreign Minister AND AMERICAN SECRETARY OF STATE, MR DULLES
~~(on the 15th)~~ meet at the Foreign Office for/Three-Power ~~Talks~~ Conference.

Though various items are on the agenda, relations with Russia will be the main topic of these important ~~British-French-American talks~~
TALKS.

Buddha--

Japan-- where 70 miles north of Tokyo-<sup>probably</sup> the largest statue of Buddha in the world, nears completion. Towering more than 100 feet into the air, it dwarfs the sculptor and his assistants, who are still at work, after nearly two years.

Carved from soft, volcanic ~~pumice~~ <sup>stone</sup> pumice, this outsize ~~statue~~ ~~has been~~ <sup>commissioned for the people of</sup> subscribed by a neighbouring village-- out of gratitude for the stone-quarries which provide their daily bread.

Puppet Exhibition --

London ~~where~~ <sup>screen-starlet</sup> Sarah Lawson- (deputising for ~~Miss~~ Petula Clark) opened the annual exhibition of the British Puppet and Model
Theatre Guild. <sup>PERFORMERS</sup>

Over 400 tiny ~~models~~ <sup>CREATURES</sup> were on show, manipulated by Guild members, ~~which included doctors, lawyers, and teachers who give their services~~

~~And now, were the well-loved little figures of our childhood days-though some were new. But they were all handmade, and insured for~~

~~It is~~ <sup>We're told</sup> said that puppets were first shown in Athens in 422 B.C,

Well- if Mr Punch has been handing out punishment since then, it's high time he got some of his own medicine.
